

Biography

Carl Michael Bergerheim was born on New Year's Eve in Gothenburg but grew up in the east side of Värmland, where a rich music life flourished. After his studies at Geijerskolan in Ransäter, Värmland, he moved to Stockholm to study at The Royal Music Academy.

Since then, he has lived and worked in that part of the country, except studies at Berkley College of Music in America and Guildhall School of Music and Drama in England. During these years, he has been working as a church musician as well as on his own compositions. The University City of Uppsala is where he has now resided for a few years.

" My music roots reach into many genres such as classical, gospel, jazz and Latin American music. However, over the last 15 years, I have placed the greatest emphasis on the artistic style of my compositions. Sometimes with influences from other music traditions, such as the theatrical musical world, as you might hint in the oratorio, The Prophet and the Evangelist, the double CD Light & Art Music and the suite Human Beings-Live! Although the tonal language always has to be experienced as a whole and integrated, this is very important to me."
